

Name:

Historical Theater: Election of 1912

Teddy Roosevelt

1. Briefly describe the details of Roosevelt's life (i.e. social class, events in the character's life that influenced him/her, etc.)?

2. How would you describe his point of view (politically conservative/liberal/radical, socially upper/middle/working class, traditionally masculine/feminine, etc.)?

3. Why, according to Roosevelt, should you vote for him?

William Howard Taft

1. Briefly describe the details of Taft's life (i.e. social class, events in the character's life that influenced him/her, etc.)?

2. How would you describe Taft's point of view (politically conservative/liberal/radical, socially upper/middle/working class, traditionally masculine/feminine, etc.)?

3. Why, according to Taft, should you vote for him?

Woodrow Wilson

1. Briefly describe the details of Woodrow Wilson's life (i.e. social class, events in the character's life that influenced him/her, etc.)?
2. How would you describe Wilson's point of view (politically conservative/liberal/radical, socially upper/middle/working class, traditionally masculine/feminine, etc.)?
3. Why, according to Wilson, should you vote for him?

Post-Election Debrief

1. Of the presented candidates, who has your vote and why?
2. Which of the presented candidates got the most votes in your classroom?
3. Which candidate actually won the election? By how much?