

2019 Franklin Historical Society Directory

Welcome to the Franklin Historical Society! The following is a list of all the exhibits designed by students as part of their finals. Follow the signs for orientation.

If you don't see an exhibit up, it is because it's development paper is still in development due to time constraints. If you are interested in seeing the research, please contact TEACHER at TEACHER EMAIL and he can email you the development paper with consent of the student.

Popular Culture Wing: Main Floor (M, SS, and S Wings)

1.A Sneak Peak at Disney: Disney Movies	Curator(s): TJ, JZ, MMC Description: This exhibit present Disney's history. We will dig into the factors which caused the company's many ups and downs throughout its history.
2. Boop-Oop-A-Doop: A History of Betty Boop.	Curator(s): AP Description: Learn about the delicate demeanor and silliness of Betty Boop from a lifelong Betty Boop fan.
3. Ready Player One: A History of Video Games	Curator(s): PK Description: Level up and gain XP as you read on about the legacy of video games and how they affected societies worldwide.
4. Lights, Camera, Action: A History of Special Effects in Hollywood.	Curator(s): WA, IB Description: This exhibit is a look at how technology changed film. You will learn about advancements such as color and sound became part of film. You'll also find out how they changed over time
5. The "Actual" Homosexual Agenda: LGBT+ in American Media	Curator(s): KS Description: Is your favorite deadly sin pride? Do you want to see yourself represented in media but find Hollywood falling short? This exhibit explores the evolution of LGBT+ in pop culture.
6. Women's Fashion Throughout History	Curator(s): BB KK Description: As society grows with each generation many trends shift to fit the times. Learn about the trends that have gone and come back.
7. The Heat On The Feet: A History of American Sneakers	Curator(s): CN TC Description: No other garment has seen a more impressive rise than the sneaker. As sneaker enthusiasts, we invite you to explore the vast developments of sneaker culture.
8. Just Do It! A History of NIKE	Curator(s): SÉ FR Description: To this day Nike serves as a company by accommodating millions of athletes worldwide. As athletes ourselves, we encourage you to take a deep dive into Nike's rich history.

9. Shades of Style: A History of American Sunglasses	Curator(s): ZH AN Description: Sunglasses have been worn for centuries, for both style and practicality. Over the years they have been modified, however they are always present from everyday life to high fashion scenarios.
10. Platinum Age of Television	Curator(s): SG Description: As an avid TV viewer, my favorite shows could not exist without the early 2000's media revolution. Perhaps you may learn more about why you love the television you love.
11. The Sexism Is Out of this World: Toxicity and Gender Roles in Sci-Fi Films	Curator(s): AL LH Description: This exhibit aims to shed light on the trends and tropes of gender within one of the most influential film genres of all time: science fiction.
12. Star Trek Through the Generations	Curator(s): AF Description: Get ready to learn the in and outs of one of the most beloved storylines in sci-fi, and how Kirk, Spock, Bones and many others first came to be!
13. America's Marvelous Heroes: A History of Marvel Comics	Curator(s): CC, ZH KT Description: An exhibit about the origins and evolution of Marvel Comics, its unique superheroes, and the role they play in our popular culture.
14. "Your Friendly Neighborhood Spider-Man"	Curator(s): AL Description: This exhibit will educate you on how Spider Man came to be and how he impacted past generations and the next.
15. Truth, Justice, and the American Way: A History of Superman	Curator(s): JP Description: Learn how Superman constituted the precedent of social and artistic principles of American society from Superman's creation in 1938 to his renouncing of his U.S. citizenship in 2011.
16. Wonder Woman: From Love to Independence	Curator(s): RH, LL Description: This exhibit describes the surprising history of Wonder Woman and the impact she has had since her beginning.
17. The X-Factor: The	Curator(s): NP

Historic Mutations of X-Men Comics	Description: With the years, the team and their character influences have changed and adapted, covering issues from civil rights to mental health to LGBT + issues.
18. The Great Build Up to LEGO	Curator(s): JB JS Description: This exhibit showcases not only the history, but the accomplishments this company has made from 1837 to now.
19. The Lizards Among Us: A History of Conspiracy Theories	Curator(s): EM, EN Description: Conspiracies have existed in the US since the birth of the nation. The truth in America needs to be uncovered. The truth is out there.
20. Chaotic Good: The Controversial History of Dungeons and Dragons	Curator(s): GJ CS HW Description: After all the conflict and controversy, it's now the world's most successful role playing game and is amazingly popular in every tabletop game store.
21. Swept Under the Rug: America's Most Obscure Legends	Curator(s): AS Description: An exploration of American-Indian lore and those featured in mainstream media, varying from analyzing historical factors affecting their exposure to simply identifying fantastical creatures that make unexpected appearances.
22. Boogeymen of the Silver Screen: A History of American Horror Cinema	Curator(s): IO Description: This exhibit ventures into the history of horror movies, from Hitchcock to Jordan Peele.
23. Utopia or Dystopia: You Decide	Curator(s): SM Description: What fills your head when you think of the date 2100? As you read this exhibit you might notice the connection between the predicted future and past events.
24. Been There, Rode That: A History of American Cowboys	Curator(s): MH SS Description: We have chosen this particular topic because the word cowboy has been over stereo-typicalized by society over the centuries. We hope to educate our audience on "herdsman" culture.

Hall of Music

S Wing (By the Performing Arts Area)

1. American Crescendo: A History of American Music	Curator(s): J.M. Description: From the beginning, music has been an important part of human history. Learn about the way music, and the way we access it, has changed throughout American history.
2. Key Change: A History of Socially Conscious Music	Curator(s): F. J., M. P. Description: The twentieth century was a time of dramatic turning points in American society, specifically music. African American Artists used music to speak out and transcend societal divides.
3.The Transition from Ragtime to Jazz	Curator(s): J.T. Description: Ragtime arose from a variety of African American and white musical influences in the South and in the early twentieth century. Then, jazz sprouted from ragtime and other music influences.
4. Rock and Roll: Through the Ages	Curator(s): B. P. Description: From the rebellious messages, raging rockstar lifestyle, to the drug induced deaths of beloved artists, you are invited to hear what makes it the greatest music genre of all time.
5. A New Noise: A History of Punk Music	Curator(s): G. W. Description: The general musical term of “punk” is extremely versatile. In this exhibit, learn about how it started/developed over the years up to modern time.
6. History of the Disc Jockey	Curator(s): T.M. Description: For over half a century, DJ’s have been playing, exploring, and changing American music. Learn their stories in this exhibit.
7. A Brief History of KPOP	Curator(s): V.M., K.N., J.V., Description: This project will tell you the discovery of KPOP from 1995 to the present. It will demonstrate the revolutionary changes of KPOP and how it has majorly influenced American culture.
8. Modern Dance in Bloom	Curator(s): L. W. Description: In the early 20th century, artists who opposed the rigidity of ballet created modern dance. In this exhibit, gain a deeper understanding surrounding the growth of new styles of dance.

Many Sides of Portland Wing
S Wing, Top Floor

1. Black Excellence: A History of Historically Black Colleges and Universities	Curator(s) : B.T. Description : Historical Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) are institutions whose primary goal was to educate African Americans. In this exhibit, learn about their history.
2. Chuuc: All But Small	Curator(s) : R.R. Description : Learn about the islands of Chuuk. While they are small, they are all very rich with culture, traditions, stories, and eye-catching sceneries.
3. Dois, Siabal, Merikel: The Catastrophic Colonization of Palau	Curator(s) : B. H. Description : Palau's history is not unlike other parts of Micronesia, strength runs deep in the fight for our culture.
4. After Nam: A History of the Vietnamese Community in Portland	Curator(s) : P. N. Description : The Vietnamese community is not a well known, but are mainly known for their amazing food such as Pho. Learn about the Vietnamese community in Portland in this exhibit.

Hall of Science
S Wing, Basement

0. Rocketry	Curator(s) : G.G. Description :
1. Traveling the Kai: The History of Outrigger Canoes	Curator(s) : M.B., S.M., K. S., J. S. Description : This exhibit explores the use of the outrigger canoe, famous for its role in the diaspora of Austronesian people's, as well as its relevance today in cultures across the world.
2. From Copy to Campaign: A History of American Advertising	Curator(s) : R.M., E.P., J.W. Description : From colonial migrations to modern day media, our exhibit tracks the unmatched spread of advertising into the most abundant aspects of American society and culture.
3. Think Different: A History of Apple	Curator(s) : Autumn Watkins, Description : Technology, it's everywhere. Smartphone, computers, tablets, etc. But how did it all start? Learn about the history of Apple Computers in this exhibit.
3. Think Different: A History of Apple	Curator(s) : A. W., Description : Technology, it's everywhere. Smartphone, computers, tablets, etc. But how did it all start? Learn about the history of Apple Computers in this exhibit.

7. Burn After Reading: The Art of Encryption.	Curator(s): L. F. Description: Cryptography has been an integral part of American culture. Learn about the ciphers that have kept American secrets for centuries.
6. Casted Through History: A History of Podcasts	Curator(s): E. F., M. P. Description: Podcasts are one of the most popular tools for learning and personal growth. In this exhibit, you will learn of podcasts history and how they've impacted American culture.
8. I'm Loving It: History of McDonalds	Curator(s): E.C. Description: McDonald's has a major hold in our country's culture. In this exhibit, learn about the clear negative and positive effects of widely established fast food chains.
9. Stars With Stripes: The Heroes of America's Kitchens	Curator(s): T.A. Description: This exhibit aims to give viewers an understanding of the role of bees, the challenges they face, and the necessity of a revolution in the relationship between bees and humankind.
10. A World On Fire: A History of Environmentalism	Curator(s): E.V. Description: We are quickly ruining the only home we have. In this exhibit learn about why we should be worried while also learning how to help our Earth.
11. The Horrors of Insane Asylums	Curator(s): A.M., S.U. Description: What started as a harmless and promising hospital, became one of the biggest horrors in the US. Learn about its
10. Ashes, Dust and Formaldehyde: A History of American Undertaking	Curator(s): C.C.M. Description: Have you ever wondered what happens to your body after you die? Learn the history of the mortuary profession and some predictions about where mortuary work could be headed.
12. American Eugenics: "Science" In Service of White Supremacy	Curator(s): E.C.. Description: This exhibit discusses the eugenics movement in America and how it was used as a way for the ruling white upper class to discriminate against minorities.

Hall of Sports

SS and Main Wings, Top Floor

1. Big Ballin': A History of the NBA	Curator(s): F. G., H. W. Description: A long history of the NBA in its successes and failures. From Wilt to MJ, this presentation has it all.
2. Michael Jordan: From Kid to GOAT	Curator(s): R.D., S.N. Description: Throughout the generations, Michael Jordan remains a legend in the NBA. In this exhibit, learn about the moments in his life that made him the Greatest of All Time (GOAT).
3. Muggsy Bogues: The NBA's Shortest Player	Curator(s): K.S., V. Z. Description: Muggsy Bogues is the shortest player ever to play in the NBA, Standing at 5-foot-3! In this exhibit, learn about his life.
4. 50 Years of Rip City: A History of the Portland Trail Blazers	Curator(s): J. M., I. S. Description: From Bill "The Big Redhead" Walton to Dame "Dolla" Lillard, this exhibit will take you through fifty years of Blazers history.
5. Love All: A History of American Tennis	Curator(s): A. S., H. T. Description: This exhibit shows the history, culture, and the future of the US Open tennis tournament.
6. The Seattle Phenomenon: A History of the Seahawks	Curator(s): A.F.A Description: In this exhibit, learn about the the drawbacks and victories of the Seattle Seahawks. They will that will blow your mind.
7. From Rum to Racing: A History of NASCAR	Curator(s): T.M., E.V. Description: NASCAR because of its ties to Prohibition and its influence in revolutionizing racing technologies. We hope to share the story of NASCAR and its origins in the criminal underworld.
8. Cross Country and Its Whoop-De-Doos	Curator(s): J.G. Description: Learn about the centuries long history of cross country from "hares and hounds" to the Olympics.
9. A League of Her Own: A History of Women's Baseball	Curator(s): L.D. Description: In this exhibit, learn that softball and any female sport makes an impact and makes good role models for many little girls and even boys.
10. Grappling with Social Change: Women's Wrestling in America	Curator(s): D.Y. Description: Girls finding empowerment in a sport celebrating hyper masculinity. Women over the years have made places for themselves have faced many challenges and overcome many obstacles, bringing sports into feminism.

12. The Kick Off of Women's Soccer in the United States.	Curator(s): M.L. Description: Learn about the history of women's soccer.

Hall of Justice
SS Wing, Basement

1. The Only Easy Day Was Yesterday: A History of Navy SEALs	Curator(s): K. N., S. K., A. P., A. B.T., Description: No matter the cost, a Navy SEAL never gives up. We invite you to journey with us through the history of Naval Special Warfare.
2. All in the Family: The Charles Manson Cult	Curator(s): E.E. Description: Charles Manson and his followers committed some of the most horrific crimes in American history, invading headlines during the 1960s. This exhibit follows the timeline and explores the psychological motives.
3. Racist Roots: A History of the American Prison System	Curator(s): K. W. Description: The United States has used the prison system a deterrent for criminal behavior. Learn the ways in which the prison system has systematically abused certain people throughout history.